WHEN IT'S WICKED GOLD...

Why did we name our oatmeal stout as if we were speaking with a New England accent? Well, we love our friends to the northeast and as Chicagoans we know a couple two tree tings about speaking with a local dialect. Plus, Swedda Wedda is much more fun to say than Sweater Weather!

Regardless of pronunciation this 6.0% oatmeal stout is as much fun to drink as the name is to say. As the cool air from the north heads our way this seasonal will warm you just like your favorite sweater does.
